The ILO is the UN agency devoted to “to advancing opportunities for women and men to obtain decent and productive work in conditions of freedom, equity, security and human dignity. Its main aims are to promote rights at work, encourage decent employment opportunities, enhance social protection and strengthen dialogue in handling work-related issues.” The website provides numerous documents and links.

Information sites

Forced Migration online <http://www.forcedmigration.org/>

This website provides «access to a wide variety of online resources dealing with the situation of forced migrants worldwide.»

Migration Information Source <http://www.migrationinformation.org/>

This is the very useful information of the Migration Policy Institute (see above). It provides articles, information and data on a wide range of migration topics.

Peter Stalker's Guide to International Migration: <http://www.pstalker.com/migration/>

This is the excellent site of the author of the No-nonsense Guide to International Migration. It is very well structured and provides a range of very useful information.

Moving Here: <http://www.movinghere.org.uk/default.htm>

This is a very good site, with a tremendous amount of information relating to immigrants in Britain, their history, and background to the source countries.

The Guardian: http://www.guardian.co.uk/Refugees\_in\_Britain

Numerous articles and the latest news on migration and refugees in the UK; links; documentation

The World in One Country: <http://www.guardian.co.uk/flash/0,,1690291,00.html>
Provides an interactive map of migrant communities in Britain.

Electronic Immigration Network: <http://www.ein.org.uk/>
“EIN is a specialist provider of information on UK immigration and refugee law via the Internet. EIN also contains information on immigration/asylum issues and case-law from the European Union and selected documents from other English-speaking jurisdictions.”

Migration News <http://migration.ucdavis.edu/mn/>
An up-to-date online news digest of international migration information based at the University of California in the US. It is compiled monthly from a vast source of media.

NGOs and political activism

ECRE (European Council on Refugees and Exiles) <http://www.ecre.org/>
This is “a pan-European network of 65 refugee-assisting non-governmental organisations that promotes a humane and generous European asylum policy.”

Asylum Aid: <http://www.asylumaid.org.uk/>
Website of an NGO which is working to “secure protection for people seeking refuge in the United Kingdom from persecution and human rights abuses abroad”.

Global Internally-Displaced People project: <http://www.idpproject.org/>
“The Internal Displacement Monitoring Centre (IDMC), established in 1998 by the Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC), is the leading international body monitoring conflict-induced internal displacement worldwide.” Internal displacement describes the forced movement of people within their home country. These are refugees who do not leave their home country, but have been forced to leave their homes.

Norwegian Refugee Council <http://www.nrc.no/>
“NRC is an independent humanitarian organization. Our task is to enhance international protection of refugees and internally displaced people, and to offer humanitarian assistance.”

December 18: <http://www.december18.net/>
This is a website which is run by an international network of volunteers and NGOs devoted to the promotion and protection of the rights of migrants.

The no border network: <http://www.noborder.org/>
A political activists’ website: “The no border network is a tool for all groups and grass root organizations who work on the questions of migrants and asylum seekers in order to struggle alongside with them for freedom of movement, for the freedom for all to stay in the place which they have chosen, against repression and the many controls which multiply the borders everywhere in all countries.”

No one is illegal: <http://www.noii.org.uk/>
Another activists’ website who describe themselves as follows: “No One Is Illegal (NOII) UK challenges the ideology of immigration controls and campaigns for their total abolition.

We oppose controls in principle and reject any idea there can be “fair” or “just” or “reasonable” or “non racist” controls.”
