1. Write the subject code and exam date in the designated section at the top of the answer form with large and clear letters/digits.
 2. Write your candidate number in the designated section at the top of the answer sheet. There is one field on each side of the answer form. Write large and clear digits, avoid the edges.
 3. Answer the questions by marking fields on the answer sheet. The answer sheet contains 120 questions, but the question booklet may contain fewer. Mark only those boxes that correspond to question numbers in the question booklet.
 4. Only one answer is correct per numbered item.
 5. All questions and the corresponding answer fields are numbered, but the number sequence on the answer form is different from that of the questions booklet. Take care that you place your marks by the correct question numbers. Other candidates' answer forms have a different number sequence.
 6. The answer form will be machine read. These rules must be followed:
 - Use a black or blue ballpoint pen. Write as clearly as you can.
 - Mark one field only per question. Mark the relevant field like this:
 - Writing outside the designated field is not permitted.
 - If you mark the wrong field, fill it completely, like this: Then mark the correct field.
 - Other correction methods, e.g. use of eraser, correcting fluid etc., are not permitted.
